6. The method(s) used by the institution to determine which students received Emergency Financial Aid Grants and how much they received under Section 314(a)(1) of CRRSAA (HEERF II).

Eligible students were U.S. Citizens or eligible non-citizens that were enrolled as of March 25th in the Spring semester as a regular student in a Title IV eligible degree or certificate program.

The CRRSSA required that Manna University prioritize eligible students with exceptional need, such as students who received Pell Grants, in awarding Emergency Financial Aid Grants to students. Manna University developed three tiers of eligibility using the following methodology: Criteria judgement was based on were loss of job, living expenses, medical expense and other miscellaneous expenses.

Tier 1 met criteria in 3 of 4 categories of need were awarded $1725 each

Tier 2 met criteria in 2 categories of need were awarded $1150 each

Tier 3 met criteria in 1 category of need were awarded $500 each

7. Any instructions, directions or guidance provided by the institution to students concerning the Emergency Financial Aid Grants.

Eligible students received an email. The email provided information about the HEERF II grants, and asked the students to explain how COVID effected their financial situation. Under the Coronavirus Response and Relief Supplemental Appropriations Act (CRRSAA), Manna University received $35,799.00 from the Higher Education Emergency Relief Fund (HEERF II) to provide emergency financial grants to students and to ensure learning continues during the COVID-19 pandemic. HEERF II grants may be used for any component of a student's cost of attendance or for emergency costs that arise due to Coronavirus, such as but not limited to tuition, food, housing, health care, mental health care, or child care. Once applicants were selected based on the criteria provided an email was sent out asking how the students would prefer to receive their grant money.
